Breckenridge Insurance Agency Creates Grants to Benefit Youth and Agriculture

BRECKENRIDGE, Mich; February 6, 2017- Breckenridge Insurance Agency of Michigan has developed the "Growing Our Future" grant to award financial assistance to 4-H and FFA organizations in the Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana areas. Breckenridge Insurance Agency of Michigan has given large donations to these groups in the past, and now hopes to expand their donations by instating this grant program.

4-H is a global youth organization that focuses on development of children and young adults between the ages of 8-18. It is a free program to join, and they currently have over 6.5 million members in the United States. The Future Farmers of America Organization is a network of American youth whom promote agricultural education. Like 4-H, it is one of the country's largest youth organization with over 600,000 current members.

Rob Fleming, President of Breckenridge Insurance Agency, said, "We have always been passionate about giving back to the agricultural community. By allowing 4-H and FFA leaders to apply for our grants online we can target a wider number of chapters." When asked about his dedication to these organizations, Fleming replied, "These groups who's help develop the youth in our community are very important. Breckenridge Insurance Agency has many customers who have been positively affected by 4-H and FFA. We try to do everything we can to enrich our community."
